Hello Julian,

As we discussed in our previous opinion (INQ 11-170), County employees may accept a meal valued at $10 from Microsoft, a County vendor, during a local, on-sight training program.

The County Ethics Code allows County employees to accept gifts from County vendors as long as there is no quid pro quo arrangement associated with the gift and the gift is not a travel expense. See the Miami-Dade County Code at Secs. 2-11.1 (e) and (w).

Attached is the signed form requested by Microsoft regarding this matter.

Sincerely,

VICTORIA FRIGO, STAFF ATTORNEY

Hi Victoria:

Similar to last November, Microsoft is requesting the County's signature on the attached gift letter. A Microsoft training class for technical staff is scheduled for Monday.

Sorry for the short notice.

Hi Julian, we are attending a Microsoft conference on Monday and they will be serving lunch. They have requested to have the attached letter signed. When we had the last conference, Mirta sent the letter to the County attorney who signed it for us. Since Mirta is out, would you be so kind to forward this to the County attorney for their signature? I attached Mirta's email from November.

Thanks!

Hi Mirta, we are having a Microsoft conference on Monday where they plan to serve lunch. They need for us to sign the gift letter again. Can you please ask the County attorney to sign it for us?

Thanks!

Hi there!

Provided there are no issues with us bringing in lunch on Monday, would you please mind having the attached letter signed, so that I can go ahead and coordinate the lunch again? Thank you!!!

Good Morning..

Hi Susanna, can you do me a favor and send a last call email to have everyone make sure they have received their confirmation invite for the Dynamics CRM Seminar by noon today. We are working to try to provide lunch but want to make sure we have an accurate head count. Stephanie will be forwarding the letter shortly to get approval. Looking forward to another great seminar.

Do you know if there is any restrictions catering a lunch at SPCC?
