Ms. Jeannette-Amodeo:

I see no ethical prohibition with the Miami-Dade Youth Commission, a government agency, sponsoring an appreciation reception for members of the BCC. I also should not be a problem for the South Beach Group and Collins Park Neighborhood Association providing the venue and refreshments. The only issue I could foresee would be if either of those private groups happened to be a County lobbyist or contractor or political committee, and the value of the contribution amounted to more than $100 per elected official, in which case those gifts would be prohibited under State Law. Based on the facts you have presented, it appears very doubtful that that would be the case, and, assuming there is no quid pro quo envisioned by these groups on any pending matters before the BCC, there should be no problem with the reception.

Subject: question regarding the Miami-Dade Youth Commission

Mr. Centorino

The Miami-Dade Youth Commission plans to highlight its fifth year and honor the BCC with a reception meeting in Miami Beach on May 27th 2015. The event is being sponsored by the following:
South Beach Group will provide the venue-the Miami Beach Women's Club
Collins Park Neighborhood Association will provide the refreshments-appetizers, sodas and water
The groups will be publicly thanked during the event and mentioned in the written programme
Can we proceed with this initiative....please advise asap.
Many thnx. jg
