Mr. Requejo:

You inquired concerning whether a County employee may become involved in a political campaign. You may do so provided that your campaign activities occur on your own time and not during working hours, and also that you not use your County position or the resources of the County in any way in a political campaign. If you were to do so it might result in a violation of Section 2-11.1(g) of the County Ethics Code for Exploitation of Official Position. I have attached a memo that we have circulated to County and Municipal employees regarding campaign activities. Please contact us if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Joe Centorino
