Subject: INQ 17-89 Miriam Singer, Sr. Assistant Director, ISD Procurement, Miami-Dade County (Sunshine Law)

Miriam Singer, Sr. Assistant Director, Miami Dade County Internal Service Department, Procurement Section, inquired concerning whether the Sunshine Law would apply to conversations she expects to have with two members of the County's Professional Services Task Force, a committee formed by the County to recommend procedures in connection with procurements involving professional services. The task force has completed its work and is now sunset. There is no longer a task force in existence. I informed Ms. Singer that, under these circumstances, the Sunshine law would no longer apply to discussions involving two or more former members of the board, since there is no foreseeable matter that will come before the board.
