

INVESTIGATOR, MIAMI-DADE COMMISSION ON ETHICS & PUBLIC TRUST (COE)

Duties and responsibilities include ability to conduct investigations into allegations of misconduct by local government officials and employees and to perform compliance work in connection with the COE's advice-giving responsibilities. At least 5 years demonstrated experience in law enforcement/criminal justice, investigative journalism, corporate compliance or related field is necessary. Experience investigating public corruption, fraud, or political campaigns and knowledge of public procurement/contracting and local government functions are highly desirable. Bachelor's degree required. Must possess basic computer skills, have excellent verbal and written communication skills and be able to work both as a team player and independently. Bilingual applicants (English/Spanish/Creole) are encouraged to apply. Must have valid Florida driver's license. Starting salary is $67,600.

Please furnish a cover letter and resume no later than June 16, 2017. Candidates may submit this information by email, fax or U.S. mail, to:

Joseph Centorino, Executive Director

Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics

19 West Flagler Street, #820

Miami, Florida 33130

Fax: (305) 579-0273

E-mail: centori@miamidade.gov

Hiring decisions are contingent upon physical examination results, including drug and alcohol screening. As a condition of employment, selected candidates must pass an extensive background investigation, including credit check.