Mr. Abrams,

Based on the services that Akerman Senterfitt will be providing the County, I conclude that the firm does not meet the definition of a consultant as defined in Section 2-10.4 of the Miami-Dade County Code. Accordingly, the financial disclosure requirement spelled out in the county's Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance does not apply Akerman Senterfitt.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers

Mr.. Meyers,

Thank you for taking my phone call on a timely basis. Akerman Senterfitt has been selected through a public process to represent the Public Health Trust at the federal level. The PHT contract asks that we abide by Miami-Dade County's Conflict of Interest Ordinance 72-82, which we are more than willing to do. However, we are unclear and concerned about the financial disclosure section and how it may apply to a 400 member law firm. Can you help clarify the intent of the ordinance.

Sincerely,

Mike Abrams
