Patricia Ryan from the Aviation Department contacted this office to ask about a situation involving an RFP (Duty Free Shops). The Selection Committee made a recommendation to the County Manager, but he has not taken action. Ms. Ryan wants to know whether she can communicate with one of bidders about its transition plan – which is not completely unrelated to the RFP. Under the Cone of Silence the only way she can verbally communicate with a bidder at this stage is to hold a public meeting. Similarly, she can put her questions about the transition plan in writing.
