Subject: Inquiry

Sarah Ingle from OSBM called and asked about the applicability of the Two Year Rule to a former County employee who will be lobbying/negotiating on behalf of a newly-incorporated employee. The former County employee has been hired by the city as a consultant, rather than as an employee. I advised Ms. Ingle that we had issued a prior opinion to a former County employee who was doing consulting work for a non-profit/educational institution and we concluded the exception to the Two Year Rule – based on employment with a governmental, educational or 5019(c)(3) corporation – applied to consultants as well as employees. Therefore, the precedent should be applied to Ms. Ingle's question as well. This inquiry was handled on May 30, 2006.
