Ms. Regula,

Regarding your concerns, I don't believe this is an ethics violation that we can pursue. However, I would like to know the identity of the person who told you and your husband that a community activities does not need to abide by rules.

Subject: Complaint

Mr. Meyers,

I have a Ethics complaint with regards to Team Metro. A Mr. Robert Holley, President of the Fairway Estates Homeowners Association, announces his homeowners meeting once a month on signs that are posted on stop signs, in front of a strip mall etc. Team Metro is aware of these signs and they informed my husband and I that because he is a community activist they look the other way with regards to charging him for the violations.

These Mr. Holley also goes around the neighborhood and calls Team Metro on a daily basis turning private homeowners, who do not belong to his association in to Team Metro, who in turns goes out and gives notices of violations or citations to these individuals.

If Team Metro is citing the individuals that Mr. Holley turns in, then I believe they should also charge him for his signs that his puts up every month. I have contacted Team Metro every month as well as Commissioner Katy Sorenson and nothing is ever done.

Please let me know if this is considered an Ethics Violation.

Thank you in advance for attention to this matter.
