Dear Ms. Walker:

I am respectfully requesting an advisory opinion in connection with the following issue:

- (1) Pursuant to Dade County Code Section 2-11.1 (i) entitled "Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance" (financial disclosure), whether or not two City of Miami employees, serving in the capacity of senior executive assistants to the police chief should file either a source of income statement, certified financial statement, or federal income tax return where there is no clear-cut delineation as to a comparable Miami-Dade County classification?

In closing, your expeditious response to this advisory opinion will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Foeman:

I received your letter of June 23, 2000 regarding the financial disclosure requirements for senior executive assistants to the police chief. Under the Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics ordinance, only those police personnel with the rank of captain, major or chief are required to file disclosure. Employees may still be subject to financial disclosure under a different section of the ordinance.

Please be advised that this is an informal opinion that is rendered only because of the time constraints. If you would like a formal Ethics Commission opinion, please advise me and I will submit the request to the Commission.

SINCERELY YOURS,

Ardyth Walker
