Memo

To: Mike Murawski, independent ethics advocate
From: Karl Ross and Kennedy Rosario, ethics investigators
Date: Jan. 13, 2010
Re: K09-154, JAIME GASCON

---

Close-out: The investigation, as detailed in the investigative report, failed to yield any information to support the allegations in the anonymous letter that Mr. Gascon received gifts from firms subject to his oversight. Contacts with representatives of the firms cited in the letter failed to produce any corroboration, nor did interviews with past and present employees of BCCO's Product Control Division. Given the lack of corroboration and given Mr. Gascon's exemplary employment record, it would not appear that there is justification for pursuing this matter further.
