C 17-08 (B)

Javier Vazquez

PUBLIC REPORT AND FINAL ORDER

The Advocate filed this complaint against Javier Vazquez (Vazquez) regarding his unregistered lobbying which took place on October 20, 2015 in the City of Miami. Vazquez admitted to a COE investigator that he had lobbied City of Miami staff including but not limited to Jaqueline Ellis, then a Planner II/ now Acting Chief of Land Development, and Devon Cejas, the Zoning Administrator seeking to influence the action, decision and/or recommendation of City staff regarding the Warrant requirement for the development known as Battersea Woods LLC and that he was not a registered lobbyist at the time.

Vazquez pled No Contest to violating one count of Section 2-654 entitled "Registration; fee; disclosure requirements; log of registered lobbyists; exemptions from payment of fee; failure to register" of the City of Miami Code and agreed to pay a fine of Five-Hundred dollars ($500.00).

Wherefore it is:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that complaint C17-08 (B) against respondent Javier Vazquez is hereby concluded.

C17-08
