Ms. Hall,

There is no violation of the County's ethics ordinance if a County employee sits on a municipal board. A County employee who is not getting paid for his board service is not engaged in outside employment. Consequently, he does not to complete an outside employment form.

If you have any further questions, feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director

Mr. Meyers,

We have a Real Estate Officer who has been appointed to the Planning Board with another municipality. Is he in violation of any ethics laws? Should he complete an outside employment form even if he is not getting paid? Please advise. Thanks.

Beverly,
Is there any way we can get opinion on this? I believe what Elva is speaking of is that county employees can not go before or lobby the BCC on behalf of any board or association.

Thanks
Charlotte

Char, it's a good idea to confirm, if you haven't, but I agree with you. I think that it's okay, as long as it doesn't present a conflict with his job duties. As it is with another municipality, I am guessing that it is okay. You may not find this specifically addressed in writing.

Tania,

I'm not sure he can do this? I seem to recall reading in Ethics training that County employees are not allowed to sit on Boards.

Good Afternoon Tania,

Yes, please ask Peter to complete the outside request form noting that his appointment to the Board is voluntary and no compensation is associated with it. It's a good idea to have it on file. I conferred with Beverly Hall and she agrees.

Thanks, Tania
Charlotte
