County Commissioner Carlos Gimenez' office called concerning its appointment to the Film and Entertainment Board. This board member wishes to do business with Miami-Dade County and the question presented is whether a contract between the County and the board member's firm creates a conflict of interest under the ethics code. I advised Commissioner Gimenez' aide that a conflict does not exist as long as the board member is not transacting business with a County department falling under the purview of the Film and Entertainment Board.
