Subject: Inquiry

I received a call from County Commissioner Rebeca Sosa's office and I was asked whether Commissioner Sosa had to report artwork given to her by the City of Miami, given originally to the City by the artist, Romario Britto. The piece is framed, but Commissioner Sosa's staff is unable to determine whether it is a print, a poster or an original. When staff contacted the Britto gallery, staff was advised that the gallery does not disclose the prices of its gifts. I advised the Commissioner's staff that if the value of the artwork exceeds $100 it needs to be reported and an independent appraiser should be consulted to determine the approximate value of the artwork.
