Mr. Seaman:

Any written communication would not be a violation of the Cone of Silence. I would advise you that calling Mr. Fernandez to respond to his concerns might very well be a violation of the Cone. If you wish to respond in writing, such communication would be permitted.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

Mr. Meyers,
Miami-Dade Park and Recreation currently has a solicitation RFP 634 which is still under the cone of silence and in the negotiation phase. I received the attached email and would like an opinion as to whether this is a breach of the cone of silence ordinance.
Your attention to this matter is appreciated.

Jon,

Word around the tennis center community is that Francisco Montana will be the person in charge of the tennis courts at Ron Ehmann Park, is that true? My question is how can other people know, before me, the park manager, I thought everyone involve was in the cone of silence. If this is true, the communication between upper management and personnel out in the field is very slow.

When you get a chance, can you call me at the park, so we can discuss the aforementioned situation in more
