Mr. Gamito,

You should not accept Microsoft's offer. Rather, you send Microsoft a check for $40 to cover the cost of the meals provided at the workshop.

Good afternoon Mr. Meyers,

We would like to obtain your recommendation as to proceeding ethically and responsibly with the following:

We are sending a representative of DERM to this Microsoft workshop, and Microsoft has asked us to sign a document acknowledging that we "accept and approve of this offer from Microsoft to fund USD $40.00 per attendee to cover meal expenses for Heroes Happen Here" workshop.

We have the option of acknowledging/accepting or mailing a check to Microsoft for $40 to cover for the meal expenses provided at the workshop.

Please advise as to how we should proceed.

Thanks in advance.
