Subject: Inquiry

I received a phone inquiry from Chip Iglesias, former chief to staff for County Commissioner Carlos Gimenez, and he serves on the board of the Miami Children's Chorus. He left the County less than two years ago and wishes to know whether he can lobby the County to secure grant money for the Miami Children's Chorus. I advised him that seeking grant money is not defined as lobbying and the two year ban would not apply to these activities. Therefore, he can appear before the County in his capacity as a board member representing the interests of the Children's Chorus as long as it is limited to grants.
