Dear Ms. Suarez:

Outside employment does not encompass volunteering. Therefore, an employee who volunteers her time does not have to file for outside employment.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director
 Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust

Hi Mr. Meyers - Martha Gonzalez (Elections Dept) has suggested I contact you for assistance regarding an MDFR employee's question about outside employment requirements. Copied below is the e-mail I received from FF Pam Lillard. She lists several organizations she works with and would like to know if she should submit outside employment forms for any of them. Please advise. Thanks!

Martha - Thanks for your help!

Subject: Please Provide Clarification re: Financial Disclosure and/or Outside Employment Statement

Eida,

She files financial disclosure form 1 for her membership in the Children's Trust and by doing that she is compliance with all the boards she might be involved with.

As far as the outside employment filing for all the volunteer activity I suggest You ask Robert Meyers (COE) for his opinion if she is subject to filing outside employment .Please cc me so that I know for future reference.

I attach the financial disclosure notification form for Pam to file and she can mail it to our office.

I appreciate all your help.

Hi Martha - Hope all is well with you and your family. Please review the e-mail copied below and let me know if this employee should file a financial disclosure and/or an outside employment financial statement. And, if so, for which volunteer activity should she file which document.

(Note: For your convenience, I've attached the MDFR memo the employee refers to in her e-mail.)

Thanks and have a great weekend!
