I received a telephone call in early June 2009 from Nina Boniske, Miami Lakes Town Attorney, about Councilwoman Nancy Simon's attendance at a conference for Hispanic elected officials, paid for by an association of Hispanic elected officials. This association does not do business with the Town of Miami Lakes. I advised Ms. Boniske that Councilwoman Simon could attend the conference and have the association cover her costs, but she should report the travel and other expenses associated with the conference paid for by the association as a gift.
