Dear Ms. Hall:

Thank you for your question. There is nothing in the County's Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance prohibiting County employees from volunteering their time to benefit non-profit organizations. The only restriction is that you may not lobby the County, appear before any County board or committee or meet with County personnel regarding the Hampton House Community Trust. You may in your volunteer capacity seek training and employment opportunities for the citizens of Brownsville as long as you do not approach Miami-Dade County government with such requests.

If you have any other questions, please feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director

Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust

I have offered my services as a Volunteer for the Hampton House Community Trust. The trust is to save the Historical Hampton House which opened in 1954. The site has been designated by the County as a historic site. This is activity is very close to my heart because I lived in the neighborhood as a child. I will not receive payment for my services, but will chair a committee that will seek training and employment opportunities for the citizens of Brownsville. My duties at Miami Dade Public Housing Agency are the Section 3 coordinator and Fair Housing Administrator. In those capacities, I seek training and employment opportunities for residents of Miami Dade County. As the Fair Housing Administrator, I investigate fair housing complaints for the agency. Please advise.
