Hi David:

Sorry for not responding sooner, but I attended a marathon budget hearing on Thursday and didn't spend much time in the office on Friday. It would be our position – and I conferred with Victoria Frigo – that the police officer may transact business with the city consistent with the restrictions contained in the ordinance (no involvement in the contract award, enforcement or oversight of said contract).

Please contact me should you wish to discuss.

Thanks,

Robert

Subject: Ethics Question

Hi Robert- may a city police officer who owns a catering business(mobile Bar B Q) agree to provide a lunch for a City event at a cost of $700 to the City , under circumstances in which the Police Department does not have any management of the event (ie: an environmental clean- up) and the Police Department and subject Police Officer are not involved the City's selection of the catering service provider , under Section 2-11.1(c) or other portions of the County Ethics Code?
Thanks
