Subject: RE: Board member for a not-for-profit organization

The prevailing rule is that employees may volunteer and serve on boards of non-profit organizations. The only issue is if the non-profit agency decided to seek grant funding from the public agency that employs the board member. If this is a likely possibility with the Prostate Disease Awareness non-profit organization, please let me know. Otherwise, no conflict of interest exist that would preclude you from sitting on this non-profit board.

If you need additional information, feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director
Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust

To whomsoever it may concern,

I would like to get a conflict of Interest Opinion in regards to the following matter:

Dr. Sanjay Razdan (one of the community physician at Jackson South Community Hospital) has invited me to be a board member for a not-for-profit organization (Prostate Disease Awareness) that he is planning to start soon. Will it be ok for me to accept this position? It is a voluntary position, I will not be paid for this and I will not be doing any voluntary work for this organization during the regular office hours. Please advice if it will be ok for me to accept this position.

Thank you

You may want to contact the Miami Dade County Ethics Commission and seek an opinion on conflict of interest. I don't expect a problem but that approach would be the appropriate course. Let me know if there's more we should discuss on this. Take care. Valda

Dear Nathan,

Dr. Razdan has invited me to be a voting board member for a not-for-profit organization (Prostate Disease Awareness) that he is planning to start soon. Will it be ok for me to accept this position? It is a voluntary position and I will not be paid for this. Please advice.
