Subject: RE: Question on Outside Employment

Ms. Marrero:

Using sick leave to engage in outside employment activities would be improper. However, an employee may use annual leave for this purpose.

Please contact me should you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director

Subject: Question on Outside Employment
Importance: High

Mr. Meyers: Several of our Automated Services (IT) Employees, who have received approval to engage in outside employment, have expressed their concerns after the recent articles in the Herald. They would like clarification to whether or not they can engage in outside employment when using annual or sick leave.

Your feedback would be extremely appreciated.

Thank you.
