I received a telephone call from Valda Clark Christian in the County Attorney's Office (PHT) on July 13, 2010 and she had questions about Dr. Roldan, CEO of the PHT, speaking at a conference in Orlando and her expenses would be underwritten by Ernest and Young, including waiving the registration fee, covering the cost of her lodging and travel. Ernest and Young is in the process of entering into a contract with the PHT to assist with the Trust's efficiency measures. I advised Ms. Christian that the ethics code prohibits bidders, vendors and consultants from paying travel and travel-related expenses for County officials and employees. Therefore, if Dr. Roldan wishes to attend this conference, the Trust can pick up these expenses or Dr. Roldan can pay for the conference herself. The other option is to seek a waiver from the Board of Trustees.
