Dr. Negron-Soto:

Given your response that no overlap exists, no conflict of interest is created if you were to take annual leave from your County position and receive payment for your consulting work on clinical and juvenile justice issues.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any additional questions.

Thank you,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director
Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust

Thank you Mr. Meyers. My current areas of responsibility for the Department are Research, Data and Technology. This consultant position is to assist other localities with Clinical issues as it relates to beginning a juvenile justice reform model for their areas. I do not envision any overlap given that while I am a clinician by education that does not fall under my areas of responsibility here.

Dear Dr. Negron-Soto:

I need some more information before I can give you an opinion. Does the consulting work overlap with your areas of responsibility for the County's Juvenile Services Department? If so, can you provide me with an estimate and explain the nature of the overlap?

Thanks,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director
Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust

Good Morning Mr. Meyers,

I have been selected to be part of the "Consultant Pool" by the Federal Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention National Training and Technical Assistance Center. This position would be a paid, as needed, position to train across the Country on Clinical and Juvenile Justice issues, including presenting Miami-Dade's JSD Justice reform model.

I want to ensure that I follow all County Policies and therefore plan to Submit a Request for Outside Employment and Plan to utilize Annual Leave for all of this work.

Before I present this to my Director I wanted to have your official opinion to ensure that none of these actions would reflect negatively on Miami-Dade County, my Department, or my Director.

I greatly appreciate your time on this.

Thank you,

Dr. Gladys Negron-Soto
