Mimi Turin, a former City of Miami city attorney, asked if she may serve as a Special Master in the City of Miami Gardens. I advised her that the two-year rule only prohibited her from appearing before her own former government employer, i.e., the City of Miami. See Miami-Dade County Code at Sec. 2-11.1 (q). A similar prohibition exists in the City of Miami Code at Sec. 2-612.
