Subject: INQ - County Commission Tickets to Homestead NASCAR

I received a phone call from Assistant County Attorney Gerald Sanchez regarding the County's use of NASCAR tickets received from the City of Homestead. The tickets are received each year by the county pursuant to a contractual agreement between the City of Homestead and NASCAR under which the County is named as a third-party beneficiary to receive tickets to the NASCAR events. In prior years these tickets were dispersed to County Commissioners for distribution at their discretion. I informed Mr. Sanchez that, since the County received these tickets pursuant to the contract, even though the County itself is not a party to the contract but a third-party beneficiary, the tickets should be viewed as County property. Therefore, any distribution of the tickets to Commissioners should be done in accordance with the policy and addendum adopted by the Miami-Dade County Commissioner regarding use of complimentary tickets for public purposes.
