Hello Diana,

You've asked if you may accept travel-related expenses, including tuition reimbursement, accommodations, and meals, from Consero, a private entity organizing a Compliance Forum in San Diego.

The County Ethics Code at Sec. 2-11.1 (w) prohibits you from accepting travel expenses, directly or indirectly, from a JHS contractor, vendor, service provider, bidder or proposer. Travel expenses include, but are not limited to, transportation, lodging, meals, registration fees and incidentals.

Although Consero is not a JHS vendor, other sponsors of the event may be vendors. Until you know precisely the entities sponsoring the event in San Diego, you will not be able to determine if you can accept the travel expenses.

If no vendors are involved and you accept the registration fees, meals, and lodging from Consero, you must disclose the expenses as a gift. See the County Ethics Code at Sec. 2-11.1 (e)(4).

If JHS vendors are sponsoring the event, you may still attend, as long as the expenses are paid for by JHS.

Note that the PHT Board may waive the requirements of this subsection by a majority vote. Also, the prohibition does not apply to travel expenses paid by other governmental entities or by organizations of which the County or the PHT is a member as long as the travel is related to that membership.

If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

VICTORIA FRIGO, STAFF ATTORNEY

Joe,

Thanks for taking my call so promptly today, it was nice catching up.

I am following up with the information we discussed related to the 'Compliance Forum' I've been invited to and put on by Consero.

Below is my email exchange with them from last week. I've also included an attachment that may provide additional information.

You will read that the event is by invitation only and accommodation and meals are covered by Consero. I thought the airfare was also covered but just read were it is not - so airfare is not included and is additional.

The question I would like to pose is as follows:

- Is this an event I am permitted to attend?

Please advise.

Thanks again,
Diana

Hi Diana,

In my prior email I listed who we had confirmed as solution providers:

The Network
SKOUT Group
Navex Global

I understand and can fully appreciate your concerns regarding conflicts of interest regarding JHS. One of the things that makes our format unique is that once an attendee is confirmed to our program (such as yourself) we ask that they provide solution providers that they would like to see at the event, and we try to bring them in.

The list of confirmed solution providers above came from referrals that our confirmed attendees provided. In addition, We try to get a total of ten solution providers for each event, and one month prior to the event, a full list of confirmed sponsors is circulated to our attendees. That said, if there is anyone who you would like us to avoid, or any best-in-class you would like to see, we would try to accommodate you.

So, although it's impossible to provide a full list at this time, I have provided who we have on currently. I hope this helps clear things up. Let me know what you think, I'm here to help in any way I can.

Best,

Zach

Zack, thank you so much for reaching out to me and following up with this information. It sounds like an interesting event and I am trying to clear it through the legal and executive leadership channels here at Jackson Health System (JHS). One of the things that has the potential to raise concern for me is the 'sponsors' associated with this event and I thought we discussed you would include a list of them so that I can review if they are current vendors at JHS – is that something you are able to provide me with prior to making the decision to accept?

I look forward to hearing back from you.

Thanks again,

Diana

Hi Diana,

It was a pleasure speaking with you today! I would welcome the opportunity to host you as a delegate or panel speaker at my Corporate Compliance & Ethics Forum on April 28-30, 2013, at Paradise Point Resort in San Diego, CA. I'm currently in the process of hand-picking delegates for my Forum, which is invitation-only, for 60 CCO's. I think it would be wonderful to have your thought leadership there, given your level of experience. I think that you'll find this format a great use of your limited time due to the quality of content and seniority of attendees. It's a great opportunity to benchmark best practices and network cross-industry with peers.

The program I'm organizing will be taking place over the course of 2 1/2 days (starting on a Sunday and ending on a Tuesday to minimize time away from the office), and the format is designed to be collaborative. There will be a variety of panel discussions, roundtable sessions, and advisory meetings, and every participant will have customized itinerary designed to meet individual and organizational goals. This is a hosted event, so your tuition, accommodations, meals, and networking functions are covered by us. It's not a selling point, but I do not want cost to be an issue. Your only expense is getting to and from the resort in San Diego, CA.

I've attached the Forum Guide so you can review some of the content we'll be covering at the event. If you think the forum would be valuable, I would like to schedule a brief call to confirm and go over our format, and I'll then send a short, one-page registration e-form that can be filled out in minutes and returned via email. Spots do tend to fill quickly on this forum due its popularity (especially panelists), so please feel free to reach out if there are any questions in the interim, I'm always happy to help.

Currently, our sponsors are as follows:

The Network

SKOUT Group

NAVEXGlobal

Warm regards,
