Detective Vila,

As we discussed in May, you have not received permission from this office to engage in outside employment. Your letter (SEC 10-55) states that you do not have a conflict to contract with the County as a Section 8 landlord.

The Ethics Commission opines on Section 8 landlord contracts under Sec. 2-11.1 (c)(2) of the County Ethics Code, but outside employment is at the complete discretion of your supervisor under Sec. 2-11 (c) of the County Code and Administrative Order 7-1.

Because you rent 5 properties, you must request permission from your department director or his/her designee to engage in outside employment every year. Once you have obtained permission from your department director, you must file income statements related to outside employment with the Elections Dept. annually. See County Ethics Code at Sec. 2-11.1 (k)(2).

If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact me at my direct number, below.

Sincerely,

VICTORIA FRIGO, SENIOR STAFF ATTORNEY
