Mr. Muñoz,

You asked about Florida Statute 112.3135 regarding nepotism. See also the County's Nepotism Manual, which is attached. Under both the State Statute and the County's anti-nepotism policy, a "nephew," but not a "nephew-in-law," is considered a "relative."

Because the County Ethics Commission does not have jurisdiction to interpret State Statutes, we suggest that you seek the advice of the County Attorney's Office or the State Ethics Commission as to whether Kathleen Labrada's legal separation from Michael Leiva's uncle allows her to supervise Michael Leiva.

I'm sorry that we cannot be of more assistance. The State Ethics Commission can be found at <http://www.ethics.state.fl.us/> or 850 488-7864.

Sincerely,

VICTORIA FRIGO, SENIOR STAFF ATTORNEY
