Subject: INQ - Lynn Barrett, Chief Compliance Officer, Jackson Health System

Lynn Barrett, Chief Compliance Officer at Jackson Health Systems, inquired whether it would be appropriate for her and another colleague to accept a paid trip to California that would include airfare, hotel lodging and registration at a conference being held by the Health Care Compliance Association (HCCA). She and her colleagues are members of HCCA. HCCA is not a county/hospital vendor, contractor or service provider. I advised that there would be no prohibition under Section 2-11.1(w), but that she and her colleague should report the trip as a gift under Section 2-11.1(e)(4).
