Ms. Pratt:

The County distinguishes between lobbyists and principals. Under Section 2-11.1 (s) of the County Ethics Code, if you are a paid outside lobbyist for a corporation, you are required to register and pay the fee. If you are an employee or board member or shareholder of a corporation and you are person designated to represent the corporation in lobbying, then you still need to register but would not be required to pay the fee. Both lobbyists and principals who lobby are required to take the ethics course.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Centorino

Hello!

Thank you for taking the time out of your day to explain the options for Ethics Training dates.

As discussed, I expected to pay the $499.00 fee, and when I selected corporation, the fee was waived. I work for KPMG...I want to ensure this is correct and I am in compliance with all guidelines.

Thank you and have a great weekend☺

Dear JANINE PRATT,

Your Annual Lobbyist Registration has been received and the registration fee has been waived because you have selected payment exemption Corporation, Partnership or other Entity.

You will only be permitted to represent your agency or company. Should you represent another agency or company, a fee of $490 will be required.

Thank you for registering and for using our online system.
