Subject: INQ 16-153 Jackelin Guiza, City Council candidate City of Doral

Dear Ms. Guiza,

You submitted an inquiry regarding whether you can continue to work for your company G&C Boss Global Management while you run for City Council seat #1 in the City of Doral. The basic facts you have presented thus far are as follows:

- You are running for City Council Seat #1 in the City of Doral
- You are employed by G& C Boss Global Management
- G&C Boss Global Management creates events for several foundations none of which are County vendors and/or contractors.
- You are not currently employed by Miami-Dade County or any of its municipalities nor are you a member of any County or municipal advisory board.

Based on the information you have provided, as a candidate merely running for the City Council seat in the City of Doral, there are no provisions in the Miami-Dade County Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics Ordinance or in the Ethical Campaign Practices Ordinance that would prevent you from continuing to work for your employer under the facts presented. Should any of the facts you have presented change, such as if you are in fact elected to the City of Doral Council seat, please do not hesitate to contact us for an opinion.

Sincerely,

RADIA TURAY

Subject: Jackelin Guiza Campaign questions

Dear Mr:

I am Jackelin Guiza, I am running for a council Member for City of Doral, i have a personal project doing for to get a Application thru FIU and part of this project the institution will be subsidized and the other part i will pay for that, with this App i will make a survey in our city then i will doing a final event that always my company works thru the foundation or chamber of commerce and my company get alliance for to get sponsorship for this event,

At the bottom you could see the project documented where explain all the process and let me know if i will have any inconvenience or conflict with my campaign, because i will never receive Money for my campaign from this Institution or Foundation.

Thank you for your support,

Sincerely
