Dear Miriam:

Hope you and your family are well. You inquired whether local officers who file State Form 1 for financial disclosure satisfy the County Ethics Code by filing a State Form 9.

Local officers required to comply with State requirements (State Form 1 and State Form 6) file State Form 9, the Quarterly Gift Disclosure form, with the Florida Ethics Commission. Local officers are defined by Florida Statute 112.3145 (1)(a)(2016). Please note that Section 2-11.1(e)(4) of the County Ethics Code requires that "local officers" file a copy of the form required by Chapter 112 with the County Clerk of the board.

Municipal Officers that have filed a State form, satisfy the County Code. They do not have to file a separate County form with their local municipal clerk. Compliance with the with the State Law Automatically Satisfies the County Ethics Code, but compliance with the County Code does not satisfy State requirements. See INQ 11-65

Please contact me if I may be of further assistance and best wishes to you and yours for a wonderful holiday season.

Best regards,

Subject: Gift Disclosure

Hi Mimi,

I hope this email finds you well. I am writing to confirm my recollection on a gift disclosure issue. Those individuals (including elected officials) that file State Form 1 for financial disclosure are only required to file the State Form 9 for gift disclosure and not the County Gift Disclosure form. Is that correct?

Thank you,
