

MIAMI-DADE COUNTY COMMISSION ON ETHICS AND PUBLIC TRUST

In Re: Sharleen Bass

C 22-19-04

PUBLIC REPORT AND FINAL ORDER

On or about April 18, 2022, Complainant, Angelina Roberts (Roberts), filed this complaint against Opa-Locka Commissioner Sharleen Bass (Bass), alleging incoherent statements suggesting Bass exploited her authority by asking the city manager to get a city official to pressure clean a school; violating the Sunshine Law; and being a "racist, rude and disrespectful."

Legal sufficiency exists where the complaint adequately alleges a violation of an ordinance within the jurisdiction of the Ethics Commission, committed by an individual within the authority of the Ethics Commission, based substantially on the personal knowledge of the Complainant and filed with the Ethics Commission within three years of the alleged violation.

The facts alleged by Complainant do not rise to a violation of any ordinance within the COE's jurisdiction. Furthermore, the Ethics Commission does not enforce the Sunshine Law.

On June 8, 2022, the Ethics Commission dismissed the complaint for lack of legal sufficiency.

Wherefore it is:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that COMPLAINT C22-19-04 against the Respondent is hereby dismissed.

DONE AND ORDERED by the Miami-Dade County Commission on Ethics & Public Trust in public session on June 8, 2022.
