Hi Nan:

Hope you're doing well. Robert just got back in town.

No need to resign from your County job. There is no prohibition under the County Code of Ethics for you to serve on the city Budget and Audit Committee. You're always the involved citizen!

On another note, my last day with the County "family" is this Friday. As of Aug. 1st I'll be working in the law firm of Weiss Serota Helfman Pastoriza Cole & Boniske. I'm really looking forward to the opportunity. I'll be working in the municipal government group.

Stay in touch. I'm sure we'll run into each other at some function...perhaps a League of Cities Dinner.

Cheers,

Hey there! Can you provide guidance on this issue for me? Wrote a note to Meyers but didn't know if he was in town. Is this your area of responsibility? Needless to say, I'm not resigning my paying job for a voluntary board seat!

Gerald-oh Ethics Guru of the County Attorney's office, one of your most distinguished directors happens to be a gables resident. Commissioner Withers wishes to appoint her to our Budget and Audit Committee. However, we do not wish to run afoul of either your Miami Dade County Ethics Ordinances or the State Ethics Laws. Please advise on whether Ms. Markowitz may be appointed, or if she would be relinquishing her position at the County by appointment to our city board.
