Ms. Palou,

Sorry I haven't responded sooner. There is no conflict of interest violation for a county employee to sell Girl Scout cookies on a break or during lunch time, as long as no pressure is applied to those who may not wish to purchase the cookies.

If you have any addition questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers

Good afternoon.

Please advise. As the Ethics Officer for the Building Department, I have been asked if selling Girl Scout cookies in the lobby of the building, by a County employee in their lunch hour and break times by displaying a sign is acceptable under established ethics procedures for solicitations by County employees. Thank you.
