Subject: Your Question

Alex,

From what I gather from your voicemail message to me, you were asked by Commissioner Sosa whether she can appoint a Miami-Dade School Board member to the Vizcaya Trust. Unless the Vizcaya Trust's enabling ordinance prohibits such an appointment, there is nothing in the County's Conflict of Interest Ordinance that bars the appointment of an elected official from another jurisdiction to a County board. You may, however, want to contact the School Board Attorney's Office to ensure that the appointment does not violate a local School Board rule.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

Thanks,

Robert
