Mr. Sori,

Thank you for your request. After conferring with my staff general counsel, we are of the opinion that Mosquito Control can accept the 20 inch LCD TV/PC monitor from Clarke Mosquito Control. Assuming the television will remain on County property at all times and is listed as part of your department's inventory, it is not a gift that has to be listed on the quarterly gift disclosure form.

If you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director
Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust

Mr. Meyers:

Good evening.

The Public Works Department's Mosquito Control Division purchased equipment (2 mosquito sprayers and insecticide totaling $35,147) from Clarke Mosquito Control. The contract for the purchase of said equipment was competitively bid. As indicated below, Mosquito Control is eligible to receive a 20" LCD TV/PC monitor from the company for purchases made in 2006; which we would use within our operation at the Division.

4/24/2006

I do not foresee any conflicts as long as all purchases are competitively procured. Nonetheless, I am respectfully requesting your review and opinion.

Thank you.

GN:

Please obtain an e-mail address for the Ethics Commission; Mr. Robert Myers is the Executive Director. I want to present the case below for their review. While I believe there should be no conflict, based on the fact that the contract was competitively bid; I would like an opinion in case I am missing something. Also, the "gifts" will be used at Mosquito Control.

Thank you.

Henry:

Mosquito Control is eligible to receive a 20" LCD TV/PC monitor from Clarke Mosquito Control for purchases made in 2006.

We purchased two mosquito sprayers and insecticide from Clarke Mosquito Control for a total of $35,147.

I'll report the gift to the ethics commission and use it at this office.

Okay to accept?
