

Prkic, Christina (COE)

INV 03-63

Modified:

Tue 7/1/03 11:21 AM

Eugene Leonard, an accountant called to discuss the outside employment form. Asked what was meant by "compensation" in regard to a County employee who has a public relations consulting firm[sole owner] which is an S-Corp. I advised him that the employee must disclose the revenues/monies he earned through the firm's work, the money he disclosed on his personal income tax form.