

Prkic, Christina (COE)

IND B-70

Modified:

Tue 7/15/03 6:19 PM

July 1st

David Wolpin inquired about the application of the new lobbyist provisions to the municipalities. Specifically, he asked if the municipalities could apply this provision which exempts individuals in quasi-judicial proceedings, "where exparte communications" are prohibited to all proceedings even where exparte communications are permitted. We advised him that this would be a less stringent application of the law and not permissible.