Dear Robert:

Thank you for returning my call so quickly regarding my informal inquiry. Here's the question:

I served in the County Manager's office as an Assistant County Manager upon separation on June 12, 2003. If I were employed by the Collins Center for Public Policy, a 501(c)(3) non-profit entity, can I lobby on behalf of the Collins Center?

Please let me know at your earliest convenience.

Tom,

I would conclude that based upon the exemption to 2-11.1(q) that applies to employees of non-profit organizations and educational institutions, you would be permitted to lobby on behalf of the Collins Center despite the fact you have recently separated from the County.

If you have any further questions, do not hesitate to contact me. Moreover, if you want this matter presented to the Ethics Commission at its next meeting, we will be meeting again on August 21st.

Robert

Robert:

I received this email from the Collins Center. We are still discussing the terms of my employment. For the purposes of the opinion, I will be employed by the Collins Center to provide professional services related to the Center's mission.

If you have any additional questions, please contact me.

-Tom

Good Afternoon Mr. Petrey,

Tom David requested an ethics advisory opinion from our office pertaining to his potential employment with the Collins Center. Could you please provide us with a job description and/or some information about the nature of his work with the Center?

So that we may respond to Mr. David in a timely manner, your prompt attention is greatly appreciated.

Kind regards,
Christina Prkic
