Case No: 07-24

PUBLIC REPORT AND ORDER DISMISSING COMPLAINT

The Advocate filed the above-captioned complaint against Emily Havlin ("Respondent") for violation of Section 2-11.1(s) (Lobbying) for failing to timely file her expenditure report. In 2006, the Respondent registered as a lobbyist for Bard Peripheral Vascular Institute. Pursuant to Section 2-11.1(s), the Respondent was required to file a lobbyist expenditure report on July 2, 2007. The Clerk of the Board sent the Respondent the courtesy reminders in May and June of 2007. The Ethics Commission and the Clerk of the Board also sent the Respondent notices of violation in July and September. As of the date of the filing of the complaint, the Respondent had not file the required expenditure form.

On October 24, 2007, the Ethics Commission found the complaint legally sufficient. On November 15, 2007, the Advocate made a Motion to Dismiss, ore tenus, on the grounds that the Respondent had filed the required forms and sought waiver of any applicable late fees.

On November 15, 2007, after reviewing the complaint and being otherwise advised in the premises, the Ethics Commission granted the Advocate's Motion to Dismiss on the grounds that the Respondent had filed the required forms and waived all late fees. Therefore it is:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED THAT the Complaint is DISMISSED and all late fees are waived.

DONE AND ORDERED by the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust in public session on November 15, 2007.
