RE: INQ 20-13

Dear Mr. Marroquin,

Thank you for contacting the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust (“Ethics Commission”), requesting our guidance regarding relatives of Miami-Dade County (“County”) employees seeking to register as County vendors.

In correspondence to our office on February 19, 2020, you stated that you wish to register your roofing business, Ibis Roofing, Inc., as a County vendor. You advised that you are not a County employee; and your spouse, Carmen Marroquin, is employed by Miami-Dade County Public School Board (“School Board”) as a teacher.

You inquired whether the County Ethics Code would prevent your company, Ibis Roofing, Inc., from contracting with the County.

Section 2-11.1(c)(4) of the County Ethics Code provides that County employees and their immediate family members, are required to obtain an ethics opinion from the Ethics Commission prior to submitting a bid, response, or application of any type of contract with the County. However, this section does not apply to you because your spouse, is an employee of the School Board. School Board employees are not County employees, and do not fall within the jurisdiction of the Miami-Dade County Ethics Code.

Consequently, you have no limitations under the County Ethics Code for doing business with the County through your private firm, Ibis Roofing, Inc.

Please be advised, however, that as a County vendor, you will become subject to certain provisions of the County Ethics Code.

Should you have further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 305-579-2594.

Sincerely,

Radia Turay, Esq.
Staff Attorney

INQs are informal ethics opinions provided by the legal staff after being reviewed and approved by the Executive Director. INQs deal with opinions previously addressed in public session by the Ethics Commission or within the plain meaning of the County Ethics Code. RQOs are opinions provided by the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust when the subject matter is of great public importance or where there is insufficient precedent. While these are informal opinions, covered parties that act contrary to the opinion may be referred to the Advocate for preliminary review or investigation and may be subject to a formal Complaint filed with the Commission on Ethics and Public Trust.
