I received a call from Lynn Dannheiser, a partner with the law firm of Weiss, Serota, and she has been appointed to the County Charter Review Committee. She wants to know whether a conflict exists due to the fact her firm represents clients before Miami-Dade County government. I advised her that Section 2-11.1(m)(2) would be the code section most likely to apply and that would simply prevent her law firm from appearing before the Charter Review Committee representing a third party (assuming she stood to benefit as a partner in the firm). Also, probably quite unlikely, is the possibility that she could have a voting conflict if she voted on a matter that directly affected her as a partner with Weiss Serota – a very remote possibility considering the charge to the Charter Review Committee.
