I received a telephone call from former County Attorney Murray Greenberg who asked whether the county's Conflict of Interest and Code of Ethics ordinance would prohibit him from serving as a paid mediator in a dispute between Miami-Dade County, American Airlines and another contractor concerning a project at Miami International Airport. I advised Mr. Greenberg that the only question in my mind was whether any of the parties might object to him mediating the matter given his involvement with the Airport when he served as County Attorney. I found nothing in the County ethics ordinance that would bar Mr. Greenberg from participating in the dispute as a mediator.
