Hi Jean:

Assuming Commissioner Steinberg is familiar with the attorney's work for the City, the Commissioner can write a letter using city letterhead. I agree with your statement that serving on a statewide commission constitutes a public purpose and would benefit Miami Beach residents.

Dear Robert,

I have what a quick question.

One of the asst city attys, specializing in building and fire matters, is applying for a vacancy on the State of Florida Building Commission. Both the City Attorney and City Manager approve this public service. Commissioner Steinberg wishes to recommend her apptment to the Governor--inasmuch as this atty's service on the Building Commission serves a public purpose I don't see any problem with the Commissioner writing this letter, whether on City or private stationery--do you concur?
