I received a telephone call from Jean Olin, Special Counsel for the City of Miami Beach, during the week of June 22-26, 2009 and she wanted to know whether City Commissioner Victor Diaz could draft a letter to support the fundraising efforts of a non-profit agency, created to address issues of importance in the gay, lesbian and transgender community. The city also has a committee that looks at some of the same issues. I advised Ms. Olin that Commissioner Diaz could in his official capacity support the efforts of this non-profit, as elected officials are permitted to solicit gifts on behalf of non-profit organizations provided there is no benefit to the commissioner or his staff.
