Dear Mr. Magill:

Yes, I would report the sneakers as a gift if you have reason to believe the value exceeds $100. You can go on our website and find the gift report form and complete it and mail it to the Clerk of the Board. It should be filed no later than December 31, 2010 for a gift received in July 2010. If you don't know the identity of the donor, simply indicate on the form identity unknown.

If you have any other questions, do not hesitate to contact me.

Thanks,

Robert Meyers, Executive Director
Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust

Dear Mr. Meyers,

On my own time, I sometimes do presentations to children on behalf of the Miami Heat. Today, I received a pair of basketball sneakers with a note saying, "thank you for all you do for us and the community." There is no price tag and there is no way of getting a value for these sneakers because they are not available to the public. Knowing the prices of high-end sneakers, there is a possibility that their value may be over $100.00. Do I need to report this gift and if so, how do I do it?

As always, thank you for your guidance in this matter.

Sincerely,
